Across Europe the upcoming German elections are followed with great interest. After 16 years of stability under Merkel, will German voters opt for continuity or change? With scholars from different disciplines we discuss what the elections on the 26th of September are likely to bring, and what the results might mean for the future of Europe. Debate with Hanna Muehlenhoff, Julia Schulte-Cloos, Tarik Abou-Chadi and Hanco Jürgens (DIA).

This event is organized by the Amsterdam Centre for European Studies \(ACES\) in cooperation with SPUI25.
